Dedicated to the Memory

Of

JAMES MARVIN PETERS

13 May 1934-July 27, 2010

and to his many cousins who have contributed to this work

Marvin, as he was known by many family members, loved his family and gathered genealogical information to share about it. Along with pride in his and your heritage, this is a tribute to Pete's life. When Calina and Bryan Clarkson sent their book to Marvin, she wrote: "To James Marvin Peters, the first and foremost Clarkson genealogist!!" That he was.

FOREWARD and ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

It is with a sense of unfinished business that I offer this information about the CLARKSONS, the family of James Marvin Peters' mother, which he had planned to write. He had gathered data from legal records for many years, had done a couple of drafts, and shared information with many of the family who requested it. When he insisted that I write about my own parents' families, he spoke of his plans to do one about his mother's family. Then his health changed and he no longer had the energy to do so. Now he is gone and with his passing, much knowledge that he had hoped to share. As I look through Jim's many papers, records and writings, I know that many family members are eager to have information about their Clarkson lineage. This is what I have gathered.

The surname dropping of the letter "t" apparently occurred in the mid-1920s following the family's move to Ceredo, WV, according to family members. In a 12 January 1981 letter written to his cousin Roy Clarkson, Marvin wrote; "I have also heard that the family name was once spelled 'Claxton.'….In Sarah Jane's Bible it was spelled both with and without the't'- so I am not sure who made the change." I will use the name CLARKSON for this work except for the earliest generations.

The symbol "+" indicates children of the individual; they will also be listed in the next generation. Cousins Bryan and Calina Blowers Clarkson published a book in 2003, primarily focused on the Ethel Carter and Guy Newton Clarkson family. A "*" will denote material from their book. My effort will be broader as it will be based on the initial 1987 pages that were in Jim's files and succeeding generations. Mark Allen Clarkson has shared material as well; (MC) denotes his contributions.

This work is dedicated to the memory of James Marvin Peters, with love and devotion for the more than fifty years that we shared. His wonderful mind that could gather and sort a myriad of details and connections between generations of family lines is evident in the pages of his material. Our children and yours need to know who their ancestors were.

I am most grateful to so many of you who have aided in my efforts: sister-in-law Judy Peters Phillips; Charlotte "Sis" Wiseman All Hutchison; and the many Clarkson, Wiseman and Wright cousins who have shared information and related wonderful memories of times spent with the man I usually called "Pete." Many have said, "He was my favorite cousin!"

Any errors are unintentional and I ask your kindness and compassion by correcting and sharing those corrections. Please let me know so others will also have the correct information.

FIRST GENERATION

1. JOHN Newton CLARKSON/CLARKSTON was born near the Cow Pasture River, probably in Bath County, Virginia on 26 April 1822. It is believed that his father was John Clarkston, born in Virginia about 1774, wife unknown. Our John Clarkston's middle name is a matter of debate: one source has the letter "R," another has "N" and a third has the name "Andrew." JMP used the name "John R. Clarkston" in his initial work as does Maurice Wiseman. However, Mark Allen Clarkson has provided documentation that the correct middle name is "Newton," as do Calina and Bryan Clarkson. I will therefore use the name John Newton Clarkson.

It is known that John Newton Clarkston was married before 1846 to Julia Ann (*Julianne) McCOMB, born 05 May 1822 in Pocahontas County, WV; the daughter of William Lester McComb, whose wife is not known. Julia Ann died 11 March 1900; her burial site is not known. John is listed in the 1900 US Census as living in Pocahontas County, WV with daughter, Sarah Jane Clarkston. John died after 1900, possibly in Rockbridge County, VA, along the Cow Pasture River. His burial site is also not known.

John N. CLARKSTON was a Colonel in the 8th Cavalry, Army of Virginia, serving with General A.G. Jenkins and his Confederate Army Raiders at the battle of Guyandotte, WV on 10 November 1862, during the Civil War. The Raiders were in many skirmishes along the Ohio River border and other battle sites, according to The West Virginia Heritage Encyclopedia (pp.2521-3, 2525.) Clarkston was involved there in an incident that today would be considered "friendly fire." (Civil War in Cabell Co WV 1861-65 by J Geiger-MC.)

In the 1870 Federal Census, John N Clarkston was listed as a farmer in Warm Springs Township of Bath Co, VA, who could neither read nor write. He moved to Pocahontas County, WV between1880-90. (MC) Children of John Newton Clarkston and Julia Ann McComb were the following:

2. + Sarah Jane Clarkston, born 13 March 1846; died 14 November 1936.
3. * Samuel L.Clarkston, born 03 January 1848; unknown date of death.
4. * James W. Clarkston, born 16 November 1849; unknown date of death.

8. *Cornelia (Nelia) R Clarkston was born 27 April, 1863 in White Sulpher Springs, Greenbrier Co, WV; death date unknown. She married Wesley George.
9. *Conaty Clarkston was born after 1864; unknown date of death.

SECOND GENERATION

2. Sarah Jane Clarkston (John N.) was born 13 March 1846, probably at Bath Alum, Bath Co, VA. Sarah Jane was never married, however she had two sons. She was a domestic worker for the father of both sons, who apparently was landowner Charles Will Roake/Rake, born in Italy (?) before 1855 (MC). Cousin Roy Clarkson wrote to Marvin, "Roake was part Indian." One oral family story is that he was an Italian immigrant lumberjack. * "He gave Sarah Jane a herd of sheep when Newton, the eldest son, was born and she started her own herd. She was a farmer and worked for Roake for years. Sarah planted corn for him, dropping ten acres in one day….She was well thought of by both family and neighbors." "Will Roake was the father of Newton Andrew Clarkston, and his brother Charles Roake was the father of Walter George Clarkston; so the men were both brothers and cousins." (MC) I offer this information for you to decide.

Sarah Jane died 04 November 1936 at Cass, Pocahontas County, WV and is buried at Arbovale Cemetery, Green Bank, Pocahontas Co, WV. Marvin and I visited her grave there, near the entrance to the Robert Byrd National Radio Astronomy Observatory at Green Bank, WV.

Ancestors of Elizabeth Marguerite Johnson

Elizabeth Marguerite JOHNSON was born 21 May 1880 in Huntersville, Pocahontas Co, WV. She was married on 16 December 1896 to Newton Andrew CLARKSON at Huntersville, WV. Elizabeth, called Lizzie, was the daughter of Rebecca Jane MCNEIL (MCNEEL?) and John Hanson JOHNSON. Elizabeth and Newton had six children (see Third Generation.) Lizzie died xx May 1939 in Ceredo, Wayne Co, WV and is buried at Crescent Hill Cemetery in Ceredo, WV, as is Newton who died 29 February 1946.

John Hanson JOHNSON was born 1846 in Huntersville, Pocahontas Co, WV. He was the son of John JOHNSON and Elizabeth LAMB. He died 04 August 1913 in Seebert, Pocahontas Co, WV, where he is buried in the Steele Cemetery.

"Elizabeth LAMB had three children before she married John JOHNSON. They are the following:

i. Mary Ann LAMB, married R. L. FARNSWORTH; moved to Missouri.
ii. Eliza Jane LAMB, married David DUNAHOO; moved to Iowa.
iii. Sarah Ewing LAMB, never married. Had a child, William Clark JOHNSON who was the father of Edna Grace Johnson HELMINTOLLER.

('According to Pocahontas Co, WV. birth registers.' Letter from Edna Helmintoller.)"

*Children of John JOHNSON and Elizabeth LAMB are the following:

i. Mary Ann JOHNSON was born about 1830 in Pocahontas Co, WV.
ii. Eliza Jane JOHNSON was born about 1836 in Pocahontas Co, WV.
iii. Emily Telitha JOHNSON was born about 1843 in Pocahontas Co, WV.
iv. Hannah Margaret JOHNSON was born about 1843 in Pocahontas Co, WV.
v. John Hanson JOHNSON was born 1846 in Huntersville, Pocahontas, Co, WV.

Rebecca Jane (Becky) MCNEIL was born 03 December 1855 in Buckeye, Pocahontas Co, the daughter of Margaret LEGGETT and Jonathan MCNEIL. *She was (1) married 25 June 1879 to John Hanson JOHNSON, who died 04 August 1913. *Rebecca married (2) J. William EDWARDS 23 May 1914 in Seebert, Pocahontas Co, WV. Rebecca died 19 January 1924 in Seebert, WV, where she is buried. Another source says Rebecca Jane died 19 January , 1924 in Nile, Scioto Co, OH.

Jonathan McNeil was born 1794; married Phoebe ?, born 1820 (Maurice Wiseman records.)

*Captain MCNEIL was born about 1830, death date unknown. Margaret LEGGETT was born 1836, died May 1914 in WV. (Calina & Bryan Clarkson book.)

Questions: Was Captain McNeil's name Jonathan David? or David Jonathan? Was he married twice? I leave this issue for other researchers. (EAHP)

Cousin Edna Johnson Helmintoller corresponded with Marvin numerous times. Gladys Jarrell also gave him a 1971 letter from Edna. Excerpts are quoted as follows: "Sterl's wife, Juanita, tells me this story: 'Rebecca Jane MCNEEL's (sic) mother was pregnant and stowed away on a ship coming from England to America. She married the Captain of the ship.' " (Gladys was heard to say at a later time that this was "made up.") Edna con't: "I know Rebecca Jane LEGGETT was the daughter of Margaret MCNEEL (sic) and David LEGGETT and had the one daughter, Rebecca (Becky). John Hanson Robert JOHNSON and Becky had 4 Children: Minnie, Elizabeth, Harper and Mary Jane."

"Children of Rebecca Jane MCNEIL and John Hanson JOHNSON (per 1880 WV Census for Pocahontas Co, WV and cited in Maurice Wiseman's records.) are the following:

i. Minnie F. JOHNSON was born 1877.
ii. Elizabeth M. JOHNSON was born 21 May 1880."
iii. Harper JOHNSON (per Edna Johnson Helmintoller letter: was born Aug 1971.)
iv. Mary Jane JOHNSON (per Edna Johnson Helmintoller letter: was born Aug 1971.)

*Elizabeth LAMB, mother of John Hanson JOHNSON, was born about 1810. She was the daughter of Alex LAMB and Virginia JOHNSON. Virginia JOHNSON was born about 1796, the daughter of John JOHNSON and Lady Elizabeth DAGNELL..

*John JOHNSON was born about 1770 in England; died 1810. He married Lady Elizabeth DAGNELL, who was born about 1771 in England. It is not currently known when they immigrated to America or where they initially settled.

*Children of John JOHNSON and Lady DAGNELL are:

i. Virginia JOHNSON, born about 1796; married Alex LAMB.
ii. Kate JOHNSON, married MOORE.
