ORA ARMINTA CHAPMAN FAMILY

Cadwallader Chapman · Born about 1773 to John and Jane (Donahoe) Chapman of Culpepper County, Virginia; died in Winfield, West Virginia on 6-5-1857 at 84 years old. A successful farmer, Cadwallader also was active in public life. In 1812 he was appointed captain of the Cabell County Militia and in 1814 he was overseer for the poor in Cabell County.
Married Mary Polly Morris — 1-5-1798 in Culpepper County VA by Charles Yates.
Married Sarah Sallie Cockburn — 3-21-1816 in Cabell County VA (now WV) by Rev. Stephen Spurlock.
Mary "Polly" Morris · Born before 1782 in Culpepper Co. VA. Polly died, before 1816 in Kanawha Co. WV., leaving Cadwallader a widower with five children. The children were Nancy, Mahlon (ca. 1802-05), Mary (1809), Joshua Morris (1800), and Frances.

Merida Chapman · Born 2- 24-1817 Cabell County VA [WV]; died 4-11-1894 at 77 years old, having been a prosperous farmer of the Teays Valley of West Virginia.
Married Jane H. — 10-6-1853
Jane Harvey Schouman · Born 3-31-1828 in Kanawha Co. VA [WV] Probably daughter of Toussant Schouman and Jane Summers. Died 9-2-1910 at 82 years of age. When she married Merida, Jane H. apparently was a widow with two children: Josephine (born about 1847) and Charles. Harriett Pyles has checked into this information which was originally provided by Alfred and Clarence, Sr. and this is from her:

According to the 1850 census of Gallis Co. Gallopolis, Ohio on 9-21-1850, Jane and Romaine Shewman were living with their step-father, Robert Summers and Jane their mother and 2 step-sisters, Sophronia and Virginia. There is a Jane Summers living in the household(or Boat) of Curtis Horris, She is shown as age 20, and Josephine, age 3 and Charles, 10 months are shown beneath her so I assume they are her children. I figured that maybe this Jane died and being a cousin or in-law of the first Jane, our grandmother took them in and raised them as her own.

Following is an account of Rowland Taylor's martyrdom: (by permission of Craig/Hadleigh on the Web 10/23/2004) <www.hadleigh.org.uk>

Hadleigh's Martyr - Rowland Taylor

The third leading Reformer who suffered in Mary's reign was Rowland Taylor, Rector of Hadleigh, in Suffolk. He was burned on Aldham Common, close to his own parish, the same day that Hooper died at Gloucester, on Saturday, the 9th February, 1555.

Rowland Taylor is one of whom we know little, except that he was a great friend of Thomas Cranmer, and a doctor of divinity and canon law. But that he was a man of high standing among the Reformers is evident, from his being ranked by his enemies with Hooper, Rogers, and Bradford; and that he was an exceedingly able and ready divine is clear from his examination, recorded by Foxe. Indeed, there is hardly any of the sufferers about whom the old Martyrologist has gathered together so many touching and striking things. One might think he was a personal friend.

Striking was the reply which he made to his friends at Hadleigh, who urged him to flee, as he might have done, when he was first summoned to appear in London before Gardiner: -What will ye have me to do? I am old, and have already lived too long to see these terrible and most wicked days. Fly you, and do as your conscience leadeth you. I am fully determined, with God's grace, to go to this

Bishop and tell him to his beard that he doth naught. I believe before God that I shall never be able to do for my God such good service as I may do now.' 'Foxe's "Acts and Monuments," vol. iii. p.138.

Striking were the replies which he made to Gardiner and his other examiners. None spoke more pithily, weightily, and powerfully than did this Suffolk incumbent.

Striking and deeply affecting was his last testament and legacy of advice to his wife, his family, and parishioners, though far too long to be inserted here, excepting the last sentence : -"For God's sake beware of Popery: for though it appear to have in it unity, yet the same is vanity and Antichristianity, and not in Christ's faith and verity."-Foxe's "Acts and Monuments," vol. iii.p.144

He was sent down from London to Hadleigh, to his great delight, to be burned before the eyes of his parishioners. When he got within two miles of Hadleigh, the Sheriff of Suffolk asked him how he felt, he replied:

"God be praised, Master Sheriff, never better. For now I am almost at home. I lack but just two stiles to go over, and I am even at my Father's house."

As he rode through the streets of the little town of Hadleigh, he found them lined with crowds of his parishioners, who had heard of his approach, and came out of their houses to greet him with many tears and lamentations. To them he only made one constant address:

"I have preached to you God's Word and truth, t and am come this day to seal it with my blood."

On coming to Aldham Common, where he was to suffer, they told him where he was. Then he said: " Thank God, I am even at home."

When he was stripped to his shirt and ready for the stake, he said, with a loud voice:

" Good people, I have taught you nothing but God's Holy Word, and those lessons that I have taken out of the Bible; and I am come hither to seal it with my blood."

He would probably have said more, but, like all the other martyrs, he was strictly forbidden to speak, and even now was struck violently on the head for saying these few words. He then knelt down and prayed, a poor woman of the parish insisting, in spite of every effort to prevent her, in kneeling down with him. After this, he was chained to the stake, and repeating the 51st Psalm, and crying to God:
"Merciful Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, receive my soul into Thy hands," stood quietly amidst the flames without crying or moving, till one of the guards dashed out his brains with a halberd. And so this good old Suffolk incumbent passed away.
